

No Cost/Low Cost Recognition Ideas

No cost/ low cost recognition can be used as an effective way to boost employee morale, re-energize employees and propel productivity. Organizations who implement a no cost/ low cost reward program are likely to see an increase in employee retention, enhanced performance and loyalty. A properly implement recognition program can be a great tool acknowledge and employees for their contributions. Below are a few no cost/low cost employee recognition ideas.

Low Cost/No Cost Employee Rewards

1. Telework Day
2. Time Off Awards
3. Special Act Award
4. Certificates of Appreciation
5. Employee recognition in organization's newsletter or intranet
6. A "Moment of Excellence" to acknowledge employees' contributions during staff meetings
7. Hall of Fame- designated area in your office space with the employee's photo
8. Use of the Chief's parking pass for a week
9. Free Training
10. Senior leader presents a Letter of Appreciation from the organization
11. Encouraging a positive performer to be a teacher or mentor
12. Lunch on Team (free lunch for employee)
13. Letter from Senior Management in OPF (with a copy going to the employee)
14. Gift Card to favorite coffee or ice cream shop
15. Goody bag including employee's favorite tea or snack items

